CALCUTTA G. P. O., JOHN OWENS,
The 1st September 1903. Presidency Postmaster.

CORPORATION OF CALCUTTA.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 565 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899, it is hereby declared that the General Committee of the Corporation of Calcutta intend to submit the following draft bye-laws for the consideration of the Corporation.

Any person having any objection to the bye-laws should submit it in writing to the Chairman of the Corporation before the 1st October 1903.

Bye-laws under section 559 (51) prescribing the conditions under which persons shall be permitted to drive registered carts.

1. Every proprietor or driver of a cart shall comply with such of the following provisions for regulating the maximum weight to be carried by carts as shall be applicable to such cart:—

For carts drawn by 2 buffaloes	...	40	maunds.
" "	1 buffalo	20	"
" "	2 bulls or bullocks...	20	"
" "	1 bull or bullock ...	10	"

2. No male person under the age of 16 years, and no female person shall drive, or be in charge of a cart.

3. No person suffering from a contagious or infectious disease shall drive, or be in charge of a cart.

4. Every driver or person in charge of a cart shall drive or conduct his cart on the extreme left of the road in a line with and in rear of any other carts or cart proceeding in the same direction, and he shall not in any way make any attempt to pass the cart immediately in front of his cart.

5. No person shall load or unload a cart in a narrow street, except in such portion thereof as shall admit the passage of two carts abreast.

6. When loading or unloading a cart in a street the person in charge of the cart shall rest in parallel with the footpath with one of its wheels touching the kerb-stone, or if there is no footpath, then parallel with and immediately on the edge of the street.

7. Every driver or person in charge of a cart shall light his lamp as soon as it becomes dark, and shall obey all reasonable orders of the Police on duty.

8. All loads carried on any cart shall be properly fastened and secured so as to prevent any portion of the load from falling off the cart. Carts laden with bamboos, long iron rails or pipes or long timber must be in charge of not less than three men of whom one shall go in front to guide the load and another behind; and after dark the persons accompanying all carts so laden must each carry a light.

9. Every driver or person in charge of a cart shall give correct information about his own name, age and residence, the name and residence of the owner, the place where the cart is ordinarily kept, and such other particulars necessary to establish his own identity and that of the owner of the cart, as he may be required by the Registering Officer to state at the time of each half-yearly registration.

10. Every driver shall carry with him when plying for hire the cart license for the then current half-year and produce it for inspection, whenever required to do so, by any Municipal or Police Officer, or the hirer of the cart.

11. The proprietor and the driver or person in charge of a cart in respect of which an offence is committed against any of the above Bye-laws shall be liable for every such offence to a fine which may extend to 20 Rupees, and in the case of a continuing breach, to a fine which may extend to 10 Rupees for every day during which the breach continues after conviction for the first breach.

CORPORATION OF CALCUTTA.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 565 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899, it is hereby declared that the General Committee of the Corporation of Calcutta intend to submit the following draft bye-laws for the consideration of the Corporation.

Any person having any objection to the bye-laws should submit it in writing to the Chairman of the Corporation before the 1st October 1903.

Bye-laws under Section 559 (34) for regulating the use of Municipal Slaughter-houses.

1. Butchers and others shall have access to a slaughter-house only for the purpose of slaughtering animals intended for human food and for the resulting purposes of skinning, cutting up and cleaning carcasses of animals slaughtered therein and on the conditions hereunder specified.

2. A person desirous of having the right to slaughter animals in a slaughter-house shall apply to the Chairman for a license. No person shall without or otherwise than in conformity with the terms of a license granted by the Chairman in that behalf have the right to slaughter animals in a slaughter-house. The granting of a license shall be discretionary.

3. The license granted by the Chairman shall have effect and continue in force from the commencement to the end of the financial year on account of which it is granted, and shall state the name of the person to whom, and the slaughter-house in respect of which, it is granted and the place or portion of such slaughter-house assigned to the licensee, and shall state that it is granted subject to the terms of section 492 of the Act. There shall be paid for each license a fee of Rs. 5.

4. A licensee shall apply to the Superintendent for a ticket for each person who is to act on his behalf or as his assistant in slaughtering animals. The ticket shall specify the name of the person in respect of whom it is issued and the place in or portion of the slaughter-house assigned to the licensee. The ticket shall be issued free of charge, and shall remain in force for the same period as the license granted to the licensee.

5. No license or ticket shall be transferable.

6. No place in or portion of a slaughter-house other than that assigned to the licensee and specified in the license shall be used by either the licensee or any assistant holding a ticket for slaughtering animals.

7. A licensee or ticket-holder shall produce his license or ticket, as the case may be, whenever he shall be required so to do by any Commissioner or by the Superintendent or other Municipal officer.

8. Animals shall be slaughtered in a slaughter-house only on such days and during such hours as shall from time to time be fixed by the Chairman by regulation made in accordance with section 488 of the Act. A notice signed by the Superintendent and countersigned by the Health Officer shall be affixed in a conspicuous place in the slaughter-house naming such days and hours.

9. None but licensees, ticket-holders, Municipal Commissioners and Municipal Officers shall have access to a slaughter-house during the hours fixed for slaughtering animals and during the process of skinning, cutting up, cleaning and stamping the carcasses.

10. Every animal brought to a slaughter-house shall be placed at such place within the premises as the Superintendent shall direct, and shall be secured in such manner as shall effectually prevent it from breaking loose or causing injury to other animals and in such a manner as to avoid causing unnecessary suffering to the animal itself.

11. No animal other than an animal which is dying from injury sustained in an accident and which is brought to the slaughter-house immediately after the accident and which shall be killed at once, shall be slaughtered until after the lapse of 24 hours from the time it is brought to the slaughter-house, and during the period an animal is confined in a slaughter-house the Superintendent shall see that it is provided during such confinement with a proper supply of wholesome water.

12. All animals brought to a slaughter-house shall be carefully examined by the Superintendent, and no animal shall be slaughtered there until it has been so examined and pronounced by the Superintendent to be free from disease.

13. No person shall bring a diseased, dying or dead animal to a slaughter-house.

This bye-law shall not apply in the case of an otherwise healthy animal which is dying from injury sustained in an accident and which is brought to the slaughter-house immediately after the accident.

14. No animal which upon examination is found to be diseased or shows symptoms of or is suspected of being diseased shall be slaughtered at a slaughter-house.

15. A special pen shall be attached to every slaughter-house premises for the segregation of animals which are found to show symptoms of or are suspected of being diseased, and every animal which upon examination is found to show symptoms of or be suspected of being diseased shall be at once removed to such special pen, and there kept under observation for such period as may be necessary to ascertain whether it is diseased or not. The cost of the maintenance of any animal kept in the special pen shall be paid by the person bringing the animal to the slaughter-house.

16. Every animal which shall be found to be suffering from an infectious or contagious disease shall forthwith be seized by the Superintendent and removed to the Municipal Knackery, or such other place as the Chairman may from time to time appoint, to be there destroyed and disposed of in such manner as to prevent any portion of the carcass being used as human food. A report of every such case shall be made to the Chairman forthwith.

17. A dying or dead animal brought to a slaughter-house shall be treated as an animal suffering from an infectious or contagious disease, provided that an animal which is dying as the result of accident and is brought to a slaughter-house immediately after the accident, may, if upon examination it be found to be free from any disease, be allowed to be slaughtered for human food.

18. No animal that is, or is suspected to be, with young shall be slaughtered at a slaughter-house.

19. The carcass of every animal which has been slaughtered in a slaughter-house shall be immediately skinned and cleaned by the person who slaughtered it, and shall after it has been skinned be carefully examined by the Superintendent to ascertain if it is free from disease. The skin shall likewise be carefully examined by the Superintendent to ascertain if it is free from disease.

20. Every carcass which upon examination is found to be diseased shall be seized by the Superintendent and with the consent of the owner, or the person who brought the animal to the slaughter-house, be forthwith destroyed in such manner as to prevent its being used for human food, or if in any case such consent be not obtained, then, if the carcass is, in the opinion of the Chairman, the Health Officer or District Health Officer, diseased, it may be destroyed as aforesaid. The expenses incurred in destroying such animal shall be paid by the person in whose possession it was at the time of its seizure.

In any case when either the skin or carcass shall show symptoms of a contagious disease the skin shall be destroyed by the Superintendent; in all other cases the skins shall remain the property of the owner. In the event of any dispute between the Superintendent and the owner of a carcass or skin as to whether a carcass or skin is diseased or not, the matter shall be referred to the Health Officer whose decision shall be final.

21. All meat and offal which upon examination are found to be diseased or are unfit for human food shall be seized and dealt with in the same manner as a diseased carcass.

22. Immediately after examination, every skinned carcass, which is found to be free from disease and fit for human food, shall be stamped over the body by the Superintendent, before the carcass is quartered or cut up. Such stamping shall be done with such stamp and dye, as may be from time to time prescribed by the Health Officer, with the Chairman's approval.

23. Skinned carcasses qualified for stamping shall be divided into three classes, numbered 1, 2 and 3, according to the quality of the meat, and stamps shall be provided for each class, and every carcass shall be stamped with the stamp designating the class to which the carcass is assigned. The Superintendent shall decide to what class each carcass is to be assigned, and, in the event of any dispute, the matter shall be referred to the Health Officer, whose decision shall be final.

24. No person shall blow by insufflation or any other process, the carcass of any animal slaughtered for human food and every person assisting in this process shall be held to have committed an offence under these regulations.

25. Every animal slaughtered in a slaughter-house shall be slaughtered in such a manner as to prevent the blood of the animal from flowing over the floor.

26. The skins, entrails and offal of slaughtered animals, which have been found to be free from disease, shall be removed to a special offal room in the slaughter-house, which will be provided for the purpose, and shall be washed and cleaned there before their removal.

27. All refuse and offal rejected by the owners of slaughtered animals, shall be deposited by them or their assistance in a Municipal offal truck, which will be provided for the purpose, and shall be disposed of, as the Chairman may direct.

28. The solid contents of the entrails of slaughtered animals shall not be washed into the sewers, but shall be removed by the persons who slaughtered the animals or their assistants, and deposited in a Municipal offal truck, which will be provided for the purpose and shall be disposed of as the Chairman shall direct.

29. Every person who slaughters an animal in a slaughter-house shall cause that portion of the floor of the slaughter-house, where the animal has been slaughtered and any adjoining wall to be thoroughly washed and cleaned immediately after the slaughter of the animals, so as to prevent the absorption therein of any blood or liquid refuse or filth, which may be spilled or splashed therein or any offensive or noxious matter which may be deposited thereon or brought in contact therewith.

30. All skins, offal and entrails, etc., left at a slaughter-house after such hour as the Superintendent shall, with the sanction of the Chairman, prescribe, shall be considered to be refuse, and shall become the property of the Corporation, and shall be disposed of as the Chairman shall direct.

31. No person shall sell meat in retail on the premises of a slaughter-house. Skins and offal may be sold in the yard of a slaughter-house, but no purchaser of any skins or offal shall on any pretext enter any portion of the slaughter-house or any building forming part thereof.

32. All meat, entrails and offal, which are fit for human food and are permitted to be removed from a slaughter-house, shall be removed in covered baskets and carts, which, together with their covers, shall be at all times kept clean, and shall be produced daily to the Superintendent or his assistants, whose duty it shall be to inspect them and see that they are kept clean.

33. Every person who slaughters in a slaughter-house any animal the carcass whereof is found to be free from disease, and fit for human food, shall every day, before leaving the slaughter-house, obtain from the Superintendent a receipt stating the number and class of the animals slaughtered by him, and the date and time when they were slaughtered, and the name of the person who slaughtered the animals, and counterfoils of all such receipts shall be filed in and kept by the Superintendent.

34. No person suffering from leprosy, sores or any disease of the skin or any contagious or infectious disease, shall enter a slaughter-house or any part of the premises.

35. No dog shall be admitted into a slaughter-house. Every dog found in a slaughter-house, shall be at once made over to the police to be dealt with as a stray dog.

36. No animals other than those which the Superintendent or his Assistant has passed as fit for slaughter and which are intended for immediate slaughter, shall be brought into that portion of the slaughter-house, which shall be set apart for the slaughter of the animals.

37. All animals brought to a slaughter-house, and which are not intended for immediate slaughter, shall be kept in pens attached to the slaughter-house, until such time as they are required, and permitted to be slaughtered, but no animal shall be so kept for more than 48 hours or such shorter period as may be necessary, subject to the provisions of Bye-law No. 11, for the purpose of preparing such cattle, by fasting or otherwise, for the process of slaughtering.

38. The owner of an animal kept in any pen for any purpose, shall bear all charges for its keep, and he shall be allowed to feed it, and to employ his own servants, if necessary, for that purpose, and shall obey all orders and directions given by the Superintendent.

39. No animals other than those which the Superintendent has passed as fit for slaughter, and which are intended for immediate slaughter, shall be brought into that portion of the slaughter-house, which shall be set apart for the slaughter of the animals.

40. No person shall make a noise, fight, or quarrel or use insulting, abusive or obscene language in a slaughter-house. Persons contravening this regulation may be summarily ejected by the Superintendent or his assistants.

41. No employé of the Corporation shall ask for or receive any gratuity in money or otherwise from any person making use of a slaughter-house.

42. No person except an employé of the Corporation appointed or other person authorised for the purpose, and placed under the control of the Health Officer, shall be permitted to perform any religious rites or duties connected with the slaughtering of animals, having regard to the views of the religious community to which he belongs.

43. The fee payable to the Corporation for the slaughtering of each animal in a slaughter-house shall be, as detailed in the following Schedule:—

	Rs. A. P.
Cows, bullocks and buffaloes (1st class) 0 4 0
Cows, do. do. (2nd class) 0 2 0
Calves 0 1 0
Sheep 0 2 0
Goats 0 2 0
Kids 0 1 0
Pigs 0 2 0

44. Every person who shall offend against any of the foregoing Bye-laws, shall be liable, for every such offence, to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees, and in the case of a continuing breach, to fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which the breach continues after conviction for the first breach.

Section 559 (36) for preventing persons suffering from any loathsome disease from keeping stalls, in or being employed in preparing or selling article of food in any market, or from entering any Municipal Market or touching any article brought thereto for sale, and for authorising the expulsion of such persons from any Municipal Market.

(1) No person suffering from leprosy or any other contagious or dangerous disease shall enter or live or carry on business or be employed in or be allowed to enter or live or carry on business or be employed in any market building, market-place, market, bazar or slaughter-house.

(2) In any case where a person suffering from any such disease enters or lives in or carries on business or is employed in any such market building, market-place, market, bazar or slaughter-house, the owner, occupier, farmer or person having the control thereof shall be deemed to have allowed such person to enter or live in or carry on business or to be employed in such place as aforesaid, unless he can prove that he has taken reasonable care and precaution to prevent such breach. Any person who offends against the preceding Bye-law hereof, may be immediately ejected by any Municipal Officer or Police Officer.

(3) No person shall sell, store, manufacture or deposit or be allowed to sell, store, manufacture or deposit any articles of human food or drink or drug or keep or be allowed to keep, any utensil or article necessary for the manufacture or carriage or storage of any such food, drink or drug in any part of any market building, market-place, market, bazar or slaughter-house, in which any person suffering from leprosy or any other contagious or dangerous disease has entered or lived or carried on business or been employed, until such part has been certified by the District Health Officer to be free from infection.

If any person uses for any of the said purposes any part of any market building, market-place, market, bazar, or slaughter-house, in which any person suffering from leprosy or any other contagious or dangerous disease has entered or lived or carried on business or been employed before such part has been certified by the District Health Officer to be free from infection, the owner, occupier or person having the control thereof, shall be deemed to have allowed the use of the said part.

Penalty Section.

Any person who shall commit a breach of any of the provisions of this Bye-law, shall be liable to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees, and in the case of a continuing breach of a fine which may extend to ten rupees, for every day during which the breach continues after conviction for the first breach.

Bye-laws under section 559 (37) for preventing persons suffering from any infectious or contagious disease living in places where food or drugs is or are sold, stored or prepared, and for disinfecting the place when any such case has occurred.

1. No person suffering from leprosy or any other loathsome, infectious or contagious disease shall live in or remain in or be permitted to occupy any place in which food or drugs is or are sold, exposed for sale, stored or prepared.
2. No owner or other person having the control or management of any place in which food or drugs is or are sold, exposed for sale, stored or prepared shall cause or permit any person suffering from leprosy or any other loathsome, infectious or contagious disease to live therein.
3. If a case of leprosy or any other loathsome, infectious or contagious disease occurs in any place in which food or drugs is or are sold, exposed for sale, stored or prepared, the owner, occupier or other person having the control or management of such place shall, within three hours from such occurrence, give information thereof to the Health Officer or a District Health Officer, and shall permit the Health Officer, District Health Officer or other Municipal Officer to enter into every part of the said place or building, and to disinfect the same, and to take such other measures as in the opinion of the Health Officer, District Health Officer or other Municipal Officer shall be necessary or desirable to prevent the spread of such disease beyond such place.
4. No person shall sell, expose for sale, store or prepare any food or drugs in any place in which any case of leprosy or other loathsome, infectious or contagious disease has occurred, until such place is certified by the Health Officer or District Health Officer to be free from infection.
5. All food and drugs, in or about any place in which food or drugs are sold, exposed for sale, stored or prepared at the time when any case of leprosy or other loathsome, infectious or contagious disease occurs shall be deemed to be unfit for human food or for medicine.
6. Every person who shall offend against any of the foregoing Bye-laws shall be punishable for every such offence with fine which may extend to twenty rupees, and, in the case of a continuing breach, with fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which the breach continues, after conviction for the first breach.

The Indian Law Reports.

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1889 the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the reports from 1876:—

APPENDIX XXX.

[See Chapter III, Rule 9.]

Advertisement of Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plot of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Barun-Daltonganj Railway, in the district of Gaya, will be put up to sale at 12 o'clock on Friday, the 18th September 1903, corresponding with the 12th Asin 1311 Fusli, at the Gaya Collector's Court.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions:—

1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than 15 feet from the railway fencing, or plough the land closer than three feet from its foundation.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceeds Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of the original sale.

4th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue-free to the highest bidders.

5th.—The purchasers shall be put in possession on receipt by the Collector of the orders of the Board confirming the sale.

[See Chapter III, Rule 9.]

Advertisement of Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plot of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Barun-Daltonganj Railway, in the district of Gaya, will be put up to sale at 12 o'clock on Friday, the 18th September 1903, corresponding with the 12th Asin 1311 Fusli, at the Gaya Collector's Court.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions:—

1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than 15 feet from the railway fencing, or plough the land closer than three feet from its foundation.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceeds Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of the original sale.

4th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue-free to the highest bidders.

5th.—The purchasers shall be put in possession on receipt by the Collector of the orders of the Board confirming the sale.

The Indian Law Reports.

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1899 the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the reports from 1876:—

LAND SALE NOTICES.

Advertisement of Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plots of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, in the district of Cuttack, will be put up to sale at 12 o'clock noon on Monday, the 9th November 1903, corresponding to the 24th Kartik 1311 A.M.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions:—

1st.—The purchaser will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than 15 feet from the Railway fencing or plough the land closer than 3 feet from its foundation.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale reckoning the day of the sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

4th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue-free to the highest bidders.

5th.—The purchaser shall be put in possession on receipt by the Collector of the order of the Board confirming the sale.

Advertisement of Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that the mokarari right of Government, as specified in the conditions of sale below to the undermentioned estate, situate in the district of Bankura, will be put up to sale at the office of the Subdivisional Officer of Vishnupur on the 2nd November 1903, corresponding to 16th Kartic 1310, Bengali era.

The purchasers will be subject to the following conditions of sale:—

1st.—The estate to be sold to the highest bidder above the upset price which has been fixed by Government at Rs. 150. The purchaser will acquire the mokarari right to 7½ bighas of jamai land in mauza Panseuli, for which an annual rental of Rs. 24-4 is payable to the superior landlord.

2nd.—The sale to be subject to existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings and by the laws in force, and purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the Revenue authorities.

3rd.—Since the amount of purchase-money will exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or, if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale is to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government) and the estate to be again put up to sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement, as in the case of original sale.

Berhampore, the 21st September 1903.

Corporation of Calcutta.

IT is hereby declared that it is intended to submit the following draft Tramway Regulations framed under section 24 of Act I (B.C.) of 1880 for the consideration of the Corporation.

Any person having any objection to the Regulations should submit it in writing to the Chairman of the Corporation before the 31st October 1903.

(1) "No electric car shall be driven at a greater speed than—

- (a) Six miles an hour on the Chitpur line, i.e., from Esplanade Junction.
- (b) Ten miles an hour on Chowinghee, i.e., from Esplanade Junction to Circular Road.
- (c) Kalighat Section, i.e., Circular Road to Kalighat, six miles.
- (d) Kalighat to Tallygunge, ten miles.
- (e) Sealdah to the East-end of Dhurrumtola, ten miles.
- (f) Dhurrumtola to Wellington Square, eight miles.
- (g) Wellington Square to Esplanade Junction, six miles.
- (h) Esplanade, East, ten miles.
- (i) Old Court House Street, Dalhousie Square and Hare Street, Strand to High Court, six miles.
- (j) Bow Bazar, Lal Bazar, six miles.
- (k) College Street to Sealdah, eight miles.
- (l) Royd Street and Elliot Road, six miles.
- (m) Wellesley Street to Wellington Square, six miles.
- (n) College Street and Cornwallis Street, eight miles, i.e., Wellington Square to Sham Bazar.
- (o) Grey Street, eight miles.
- (p) Belgachia Line, ten miles.
- (q) Kidderpore Bridge to Sonai Bazar, eight miles.

On all curves cars shall not be driven at a greater pace than three miles an hour, and at crossings four miles.

(2) A clear space of at least 50 feet shall be kept between successive cars except at stations or turn-outs, unless it may be necessary to approach nearer in order to avoid collision or prevent injury.

(3) No two cars proceeding in opposite directions shall stop abreast of one another and so block the street. They shall stop so as to have a clear distance along the line of 50 feet between them, and no two cars shall pass each other on a road crossing.

(4) At the intersection of narrow streets where there are stopping stations cars shall not be driven at a greater speed than four miles an hour, and they shall be brought to a dead stop at the approach side of a crossing so that no portion of the car shall project on the cross roads.

(5) For the breach of any of the above four rules the driver or motorman shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 and the Company to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(6) At curves, turnings and crossings at which it is, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Police, necessary, the Company shall station signallers. When the line is clear the signallers shall show a white flag by day and a white light at night. When the line is obstructed, they shall show a red flag by day and a red light by night. Every car shall be stopped until the line-clear signal is given. Any infringement of this rule by signaller, driver or motorman shall make him liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5, and the Company to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(7) The driver or motorman shall at all times be responsible for seeing that the line is clear of obstruction; and if there is any risk of collision, or the line is in any way obstructed, the car shall be stopped till the line is clear of obstruction. The penalty for infringement shall be a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 by the driver or motorman, and Rs. 20 by the Tramway Company.

(8) If a procession be passing along the street, the driver shall stop the car till the procession has passed. For breach of this rule the conductor and driver shall be each liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5, and the Company to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(9) The Commissioner of Police shall be responsible for the regulation of tramway traffic in the town and suburbs of Calcutta during native and other festivals or processions.

(10) The purdahs or other side arrangements on the cars shall be so arranged as not to project beyond the footboard, flap about, or otherwise interfere with the passing traffic.

For breach of this rule the Company and the conductor shall each be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 and Rs. 5, respectively.

(11) Every car shall be provided with a properly-constructed life-guard.

For breach of this rule the Company shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(12) No one shall be allowed to drive a motor-car on any public street who is not provided with a certificate of competency from Government.

(13) Every conductor and driver shall wear a distinguishing badge in such a way as to be fully exposed to view, and shall state his number to any passenger asking for it. Penalty for breach of this rule shall be a fine not exceeding Rs. 5. The Company will also be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(14) Any person, except a servant of the Company on duty, entering or leaving a car whilst in motion shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 20.

Any person infringing the above rule shall be bound on demand being made by an officer of the Company on duty to give his or her correct name and address. For breach of this rule any such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(15) Every car shall halt at fixed stations to be established by the Company, subject to the sanction and approval of the Corporation, in order to admit of passengers entering or alighting. For breach of this rule the conductor and the driver shall be each liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

(16) On the occurrence of any accident causing serious injury to person or property, it shall be the duty of the Company to report the matter at the police-station, within the jurisdiction of which the accident may have occurred, or at the nearest police-station, whichever may be most convenient, within one hour of such accident, and to give the Police full and prompt assistance in the prosecution of any enquiry which they may institute. For neglect to comply with this regulation, the Company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 20.

(17) If, in connection with such accident, any person receives any serious bodily injury, it shall be the duty of the conductor to make arrangements to send such person to hospital with the least possible delay, unless his friends desire otherwise and agree to take charge of him. If the conductor omits to make such arrangements, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding Rs. 5, and the Company shall also be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 20.

(18) No conductor, driver or other employé of the Tramways Company on duty in a car shall use abusive language to any of the passengers or intending passengers, or behave in an insolent manner, or misconduct himself in any other way in the performance of his duty. Penalty for breach of this rule shall be a fine not exceeding Rs. 5.

(19) Every car running after sunset shall carry two bright lights, one in front of the car and one at the back. The penalty for infringement of the rule will render the conductor liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5.
